Facility Description, Location & Driving Directions

Facility: Outdoor sand show arena and two warm-up rings are safe when wet. The park has wonderful riding trails! PLEASE remember to pick up manure/hay from the parking area when you leave.

Food: Drinks/snacks available; picnic areas next to the ring.

Location: Bridle Trails State Park
53rd & 116th Ave N.E.
Kirkland, Washington
Day of show phone: 425-822-0605

Directions: Exit I-405 at NE 70th, turn south onto 116th Ave NE on east side of I-405. Straight ahead at stop sign at 60th Ave. NE. Watch for Park entrance on left in less than 1 mile.

Attire and Rules

Show clothes and braiding are definitely not necessary for these shows, but a riding helmet, breeches and boots are required. Horses may wear leg wraps or boots. All other USEF rules will apply.

NOTE: The September 13 show is our "dress up" occasion: formal clothes are encouraged (but not required) and special awards may be given.

Scoring and Prizes

Ribbons will be awarded in these classes:

Introductory Level

Training Level

Training Level

First Level

First Level Test 2, 3, 4, Second Level and above - Test of Choice (Likely to start after 3:30 pm)
